

I started swimming at BASC three years ago and currently training 10-12 hours per week including other activities at school.

Right now my aim is to gain more county times ready for the new season. I love to swim at BASC with our amazing coaches.